About Lake Balaton

Lake Balaton is the largest lake in Central Europe and Hungary, and one of the country's most important tourist destinations. Its main attraction is the waterfront, offering countless opportunities for swimming, surfing, and sailing, while also serving as a hub for horseback riding, hang-gliding, and cycling.

On the southern shore, visitors can find many attractions. A must-see is Somogyvár, with its famous Benedictine monastery.

While the northern shore of the lake deepens quickly, the southern side offers shallow, slowly deepening waters, making it ideal for families with children. Many of its popular and internationally recognized beaches have been awarded the Blue Wave Flag distinction.

But Lake Balaton is not just for swimming enthusiasts—there are many other activities around the lake: water parks, boat excursions, adventure parks (e.g., in Zánka, Zamárdi, Balatonfüred), and hiking trails. Countless open-air events and concerts are held around the lake, especially appealing to young people. Boat trips are a must, with regular scheduled ferries and evening party boats departing from ports such as Badacsony and Tihany.

For animal lovers, the Africa Museum in Balatonederics and the Buffalo Reserve in Kápolnápuszta provide close-to-nature experiences.

Those who enjoy vibrant nightlife will find Siófok and Balatonfüred the most popular, but many other towns also offer excellent spots for entertainment, with beautiful night views across the lake.

Health tourism is also a hallmark of the region, with numerous spas, such as the world-famous Hévíz Lake.

Balatonlelle

The town of Balatonlelle is one of the settlements on the southern shore of Lake Balaton with the most outstanding tourist facilities. Its location is favorable, as it can be reached by motorway, railway, small aircraft, and boat.

Balatonlelle is one of the oldest settlements on the southern shore of the lake. It is already mentioned in Hungary's oldest surviving Hungarian-language record, the founding charter of the Tihany Abbey from 1055, which refers to the Basilica of Saint Clement located in Lelle, along the Great Military Road. Due to its central location, the town suffered from Tatar and Ottoman invasions, but was repopulated again and again.

In the Millennium year of 1896, people from Budapest began to discover the beneficial effects of Lake Balaton. By 1904, a bathing association had been established, which played a decisive role in the development of the settlement, transforming it into a cultural landscape. In 1928, Lelle received the status of a "spa resort" in recognition of its beautiful "Villa Row" and was granted the name Balatonlelle. Afterwards, many scientists and artists chose it as a place of rest and creativity – a tradition that continues to this day.

Between 1946 and 1948, the residence of the President of the Hungarian Republic was also located here, in the center of Villa Row. In 1979, Balatonboglár and Balatonlelle were united under the name "Boglárlelle", and in 1986 the settlement received the rank of town. Since 1991, Balatonlelle has once again been an independent town. Known as the "flowering Lelle", the settlement preserves its bathing traditions, while its inhabitants continue to welcome visitors with their long-famous hospitality.

The vibrant Mediterranean-style summer center of Balatonlelle is St. Stephen Square (Szent István tér). Every evening, thousands of people gather here to listen to concerts by amateur bands around the fountain, to shop in the surrounding streets, or to enjoy portraits drawn by artists.

For children's delight, a circus and amusement park operate throughout the summer, offering entertainment for young and old alike. Cultural programs are also plentiful: lovers of classical music can enjoy weekly organ concerts in the Roman Catholic church, while those who prefer lighter genres can attend concerts and performances on the outdoor stage of the cultural center.

Annual festivals that make summers in Balatonlelle unforgettable:

- July Festival and Fishermen's Soup Cooking Competition
- Wine Week in Balatonlelle and Miss Balaton Beauty Pageant
- 20th of August Water Parade and Fireworks
- Harvest Parade and Festivities

Emergency Instructions

Fire Alarm / Emergency / Evacuation

H55 Balatonlelle guesthouse is equipped with a fire alarm system. All staff members have received fire safety training to respond quickly and effectively to emergencies. The buildings are equipped with smoke detectors. The electronic internal fire alarm system continuously monitors all buildings and automatically notifies the nearest fire department in case of fire.

Please familiarize yourself with the nearest escape routes, fire alarm devices, and fire extinguisher locations. Escape routes are posted on the inside of the entrance doors.

If you are in your room during a fire alarm:

Leave your room immediately!

After leaving the room, locate the nearest emergency exit and proceed as follows:

Open the door carefully and check for smoke in the corridor.

If you detect even a small amount of smoke, go immediately to the nearest emergency exit.

If visibility is completely reduced, stay close to the wall and count the doors to the exit.

Since the air is fresher near the floor, move in a crouched position.

Never attempt to go through dense smoke!

Always remain calm!

If you cannot leave your room:

Call the reception and inform them of your situation!

Stay in your room; if the exit is blocked, this is the safest place.

Place wet towels or sheets at the door threshold to prevent smoke from entering the room.

Remove curtains and flammable materials if the fire has reached your window from outside.

Empty trash bins and use them as buckets; keep towels and sheets at the threshold wet.

Make yourself visible and signal your presence to firefighters with a white sheet through the window.

Stay close to the ground.

Cover your mouth and nose with a wet cloth to facilitate breathing.

Avoid breaking the window unless absolutely necessary to prevent creating a draft that could feed the fire.

Act thoughtfully and always remain calm.
